

The Trondheim Declaration

Equity in health and well-being – a political choice!

Context

- The global health promotion conferences setting the agenda by outcome documents
- 1986 – the Ottawa Charter
- Nordic conferences since 1987 Esbo (Helsinki), Finland

From Ottawa:

- Adelaide, 1988
- Sundsvall, 1991
- Jakarta, 1997
- Mexico, 2000
- Bangkok, 2005
- Nairobi, 2009
- Helsingfors, 2013

From Esbo:

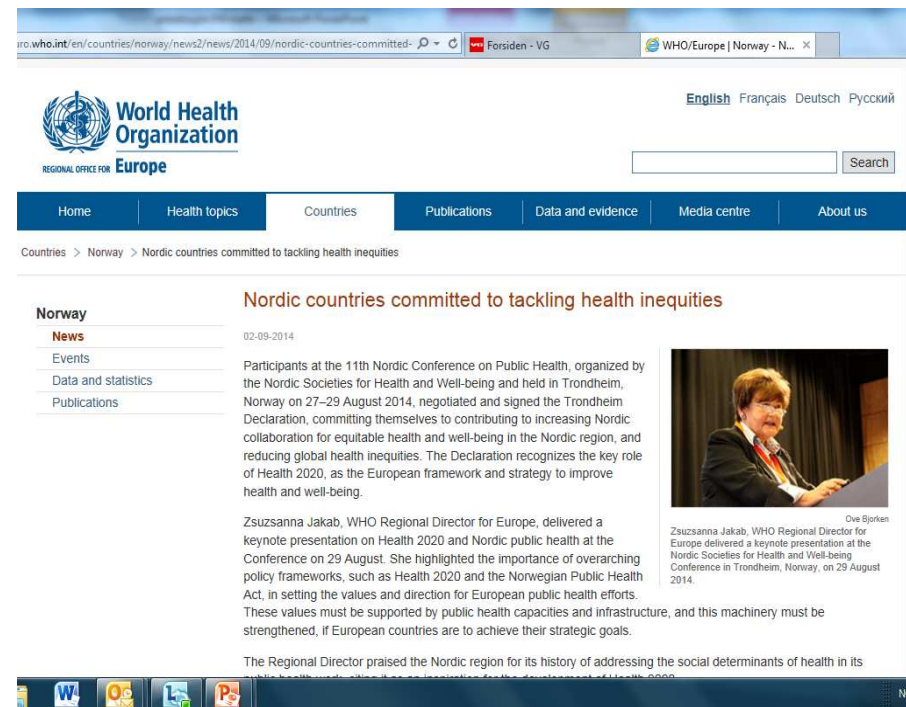

- Bergen, 1988
- Aalborg, 1992
- Göteborg, 1996
- Helsingfors, 1999
- Kristiansand, 2001
- Odense, 2003
- Reykjavik, 2005
- Östersund, 2008
- Åbo, 2011
- Trondheim, 2014

WHO euro: Health 2020

Two strategic objectives:

- improving health for all and reducing health inequalities
- improving leadership and participatory governance for health

11th Nordic Health Promotion Conference:

Nordic Societies for Health and Well-being

Nordisk
folkehelsekonferanse

26. - 29. august 2014
Trondheim

Equity in health and well-being – a political choice!

Norwegian public health act: Societal development in order to promote public health and reduce health inequalities

Principles:

- health equity
- health in all policies
- sustainable development
- the precautionary principle
- participation

Nordisk
folkehelsekonferanse

26. - 29. august 2014
Trondheim

Hjem Nedlastninger Program Praktisk informasjon Om oss English

Søk

NORDISK FOLKEHELSEKONFERANSE I TRONDHEIM 2014

SAMFUNNSUTVIKLING FOR HELSE OG TRIVSEL I NORDEN

- Nordic societies for health and well-being

Trondheimserklæringen

The Trondheim Declaration

Nor

Far

Eng

Rus

Samarbeidspartnere:

Embætti
landlæknis
Directorate of Health

folkhälsan

Helsedirektoratet

INSTITUTET FÖR
HÄLSA OCH VÄLFÄRD

Folkhälsomyndigheten

Sundhedsstyrelsen

thank you!

